1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress makes the following findings:

- 3 (1) Recent reports on sex trafficking estimate
- 4 that hundreds of thousands of children and youth
- 5 are at risk for domestic sex trafficking.

1 (2) The risk is compounded every year for the 2 up to 30,000 young people who are “emancipated”
3 from foster care.

4 (3) The current child welfare system does not
5 effectively identify, prevent, or intervene when a 6 child or youth presents as trafficked or at risk for 7 trafficking.

8 (4) Within the current foster care system, many 9 young adults are housed in congregate care facilities
10 or group homes, which often are targeted by traf-
11 fickers.

12 (5) Within the current foster care system, chil-
13 dren and youth are routinely denied the opportunity
14 to participate in normal, age or developmentally ap-
15 propriate activities such as joining 4-H and other
16 clubs, participating in school plays, playing sports,
17 going to camp, and visiting a friend.

18 (6) A lack of normalcy and barriers to partici-
19 pation in age or developmentally appropriate activi-
20 ties, which are endemic features of the current child
21 welfare system, contribute to increased vulnerability
22 for trafficking, homelessness, and other negative
23 outcomes for children and youth in foster care.

24 (7) The latest research in adolescent brain de-
25 velopment indicates that young people learn through

1 experience and through trial and error and as part 2 of healthy brain development young people need to 3 take on increasing levels of decisionmaking through 4 their teenage years.

5 (8) In order to combat domestic sex trafficking
6 and to improve outcomes for children and youth in 7 foster care, systemic changes need to be made to the 8 current child welfare system that focus on—

9 (A) the reduction of youth in congregate
10 care facilities and group homes;

11 (B) greater youth interaction with case
12 planning while in foster care;

13 (C) improved policies and procedures that 14 encourage age or developmentally appropriate
15 activities for children in foster care and permit
16 more opportunities for such children to make 17 meaningful and permanent connects with caring 18 adults; and

19 (D) with regard to domestic sex traf-
20 ficking, improved identification, prevention, and 21 intervention by the child welfare agency in col-
22 laboration with the courts, local law enforce-
23 ment agencies, and other social service pro-
24 viders.

 9 U.S.C. 671(a)(9)) is amended—

- 15 “(i) January 1, 2015, demonstrate to 16 the Secretary that it has developed, in con-
 17 sultation with the child protective services
 18 agency for the State, policies and proce-
 19 dures for identifying and screening, and to 20 determine appropriate State action and 21 services, any child who the State has rea-
 22 sonable cause to believe is a victim of sex

20 typical for an age or age group.

21 “(B) In the case of a specific child, the term
